The Minister also announced the creation of an Observatory of Sunday trading. This Observatory will assess the reform of the opening of shops on Sundays in Paris to follow the international promotion, to measure the impact in terms of job creation, the effects on trade and activity including proximity and possible resulting costs for the city. Companies wishing to open on Sundays and evening as part of the ZTI will conduct a dialogue with employees as part of a sectoral agreement, group, territory or business. In companies with fewer than 11 employees, the entrepreneur will need to collect the majority agreement of its employees.
